

CHECKING

Choice. Because one size rarely fits all.

We offer options to fit your checking needs.

No two members are the same. We get that. That's why we offer three checking account options so you choose the one that fits your needs best – all with convenient access and no minimum balance requirement.

Choose the Ent Checking Account that's right for you:

Direct Deposit

It's the secure, convenient and dependable way to electronically deposit your paycheck, retirement benefits, government payments or other regular monthly checks. With Direct Deposit, there's no waiting for your check to arrive in the mail. And your money will always be in your account on time, when you expect it. Visit Ent.com/DirectDeposit for more information.

Overdraft Protection

Protect yourself from overdrawing your account by setting up free Overdraft Transfers from another Ent Account, or ask about Courtesy Pay for your debit card. For more information, visit Ent.com/OverdraftProtection.

Ent.com/Checking

Open your account.

To open your account, visit us online at Ent.com/OpenAccount, stop by your nearest Ent Service Center or call (719) 574-1100 or 800-525-9623.

¹Visit Ent.com/Rates for current dividend rate information.

²Account owner must be 15–26 years of age. Account owner under age 18 years would require a joint owner; parent or guardian. At account expiration this account will be automatically converted to the Basic Checking account type available from Ent at that time.

³Transactions at ATMs not owned by Ent or in a partnership with the CO-OP Network may incur fees by the machine's owner. See Ent's fee schedule at Ent.com/Legal. For a complete list of free ATMs available to you as an Ent member, please review Ent.com/Locations. Thousands of surcharge-free ATMs are available nationwide.

⁴There is no charge from Ent for these services; however, text and/or data plan charges from your mobile service provider may apply. Account qualifications apply. Please review Ent's Important Account Information and Fee Schedule for more information.
