Dreams Start With Youth Accounts

It's never too early to open a savings account for your child. Our accounts give you opportunities to save for their future and teach them the benefits of good money habits. Whether you're a parent, grandparent or a guardian, you can open a youth account for someone special. Just bring in the required identification, per the chart below, to any service center. Find us at Ent.com/Locations.

Up to Age 14:

Child does not have to be present.

Adult's Identification:

Two valid IDs: One must be a government-issued photo ID.

If you're a guardian, you must also bring legal proof of guardianship.

Also Bring One of the Below:

- Adult's health insurance card listing the child.
- Adult's most recent tax return listing the child.
- Child's state-issued ID.
- Child's birth certificate.
- Child's Social Security card.

15 & Older:

Youth's presence is preferred.

Adult's Identification:

Two valid IDs: One must be a government-issued photo ID.

If you're a guardian, you must also bring legal proof of guardianship.

Youth 15 & Older: Bringing one of the below is optional but preferred:

- Driving learner's permit.
- Military ID.
- Passport.
- Other government issued photo ID.

If you don't have one of the options above, you can bring one of the items listed under "Up to age 14"

Borrowing Money

Junior is borrowing too much money! What can he do instead?

Draw a line to connect each picture in the top row to its match in the bottom row.

Junior borrows money to buy new headphones

Junior makes a budget to plan out what he wants to buy

Junior works hard at school so that he can get a scholarship

Junior saves money every month in an emergency fund

Why do you think it's a good idea to borrow less money?

4 ways to learn about saving:

- Start a piggy bank
- Open a bank account
- Use a savings jar
- Create a savings goal timeline

It's never too early to teach kids the benefits of good money habits that will last them a lifetime.
